Farm Bureau Sets Dinner Meeting

The Appomattox County Farm Bureau will hold a dinner meeting October 5 in the Appomattox County High School cafeteria at 6:30 p.m.

Don't you be careless! Prevent Forest Fires!

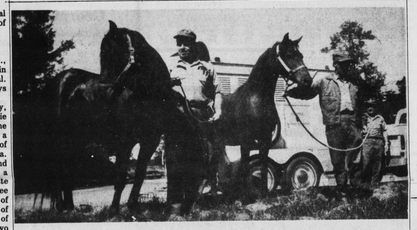
The annual Miss Appomattox County Farm Bureau competition is scheduled to be held at the meeting. All eligible contestants are invited to take part in the competition.

Farm Bureau field representative Ben Wilkinson met with board members September 16 as the Appomattox County chapter held its monthly meeting.

About one third of Farm Bureau members have received their signs reading, "Reward for information leading to the arrest and conviction of persons committing theft, arson or vandalism"

Members who have not picked up their signs are asked to do so at the dinner meeting or at the bureau office.

Members are also urged to become familiar with the services offered by Farm Bureau, and to utilize the services available. Some of the services can offer substantial savings to members.



New "Employees" Arrive At Historical Park

September 23 two new workers arrived at Appomattox Court House National Historical Park having just transferred from George Washington Birthplace National Monument in Westmoreland County. They are both registered Morgan horses with "Julianna" a four year old mare on the left and "Wakefield Denny" an 18 month old gelding on the right. Louis Sackett from George Washington Birthplace is holding Julianna and Henry Chernault of Appomattox is holding Wakefield Denny with Ray Gutridge of George Washington Birthplace in the background.

Both horses will be utilized as a part of the Park's living history program while adding to the overall historic scene of the Court House. When asked if they were excited about their new job, both replied "Yeesssss" and indicated that they would be happy to meet anyone who would care to drop by.

...District games this week will see Brookville at Altavista, Jefferson Forest at Amherst County, Wm. Campbell at Gretna and Rustburg at Liberty while Nelson County has an open date.

After a poor two to five showing for last week's picks, we are going to be more conservative this week. We pick Appomattox to down Staunton River by an impressive margin. Still smarting from the tie of two weeks ago, the Raiders will be up for the undermanned Eagles.

Brookville over Altavista. The Colonels share the bottom of the league standings with Staunton River and after facing the Bees, there will be no change for Mike Head's charges.

Rustburg has not shown the stingy defense it had last season, nor is the Red Devil's offense in high gear yet. We predict Liberty to be a little stronger after a defeat at the hands of Nelson county last week, and the Minutemen should upend Rustburg.

Gretna came on strong late in the game to topple Jefferson Forest, but William Campbell has shown more improvement than any team in the district. We pick the Generals in a close one.

Jefferson Forest has been inconsistant in its three starts this year. A team can't let down against Amherst County, so the Lancers by a breeze.

On the season picks we are 10-3 with two ties which we did not predict.

Registration Ends October 4th For PP&K Competition

Registrations for the 1974 Punt, Pass and Kick Program, co-sponsored locally by Lawson Ford, Inc. and the Appomattox County Jaycees, continue to roll in as the date for registration ends October 4th.

Local youngsters, between the ages of 8 and 13, will be competing on Saturday, October 5th, at the ACHS football field for one of 18 trophies in the first level of PP&K competition. PPK is an annual event. Registration is open to all youngsters in this age group who are accompanied by a parent or guardian. There is no entry fee. Purchase is not necessary. Each entrant will receive a free PP&K Tips Book from Lawson Ford giving rules of competition, conditioning exercises as well as valuable punting, passing and place-kicking tips from outstanding pros.

Participation requres no special equipment and does not require a youngster's amateur standing.

A youngster's chances of winning in every level which he achieves is increased by the fact he or she is competing only against others in the same age group.

The "SONS OF THUNDER" is coming October 26th
